FRIENDS OF THE THEATRE

If you enjoy the theatre, why not become a Friend of the Theatre?

Friends of the Theatre is an organisation where members volunteer to work in various aspects of the theatre such as ushering, bar, candy bar and program selling. Friends receive discounts to many of the shows listed in Spotlight, and also receive this newsletter mailed direct to them. Each time a Friend of the Theatre works they receive a Performance Work Voucher, which is exchanged for tickets to events. Unlimited seats are available in exchange for Performance Work Vouchers on events in Spotlight bearing the blue star symbol. For other events, voucher seats are limited to a total of six seats per performance. Further details as well as membership forms are available from the Box Office.

SEE IT LIVE REWARDS

Save money on tickets to many events in Spotlight by becoming a See It Live Rewards member. Ask the Box Office for more details.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Theatre programs start promptly at the advertised start time and latecomers will not be admitted until a suitable break in the performance. Smoking is not allowed in any part of the Pilbeam Theatre or other Council venues. The use of cameras and recording devices during performances is illegal and penalties for infringement of copyright in this way are severe. Please ensure all mobile phones are switched off before entering the auditorium. Crying or fidgety children can be a distraction to other theatregoers and performers, so if you bring your small child to the theatre, please book an aisle seat in case you need to exit the auditorium.

Morning Melodies: Lonnie Lee

Morning Melodies for 2016 opens with Australian music pioneer, Lonnie Lee. Lonnie Lee came to prominence in the mid 1950s around the same time as Elvis Presley and Jerry Lee Lewis. By the late 1950s he recorded his first of many hits, Ain't it So, which he wrote with Johnny O'Keefe. A regular on Bandstand and Six O'Clock Rock, Lonnie had eight top 100 singles on the charts with seven peaking in the top 40 throughout his career. He achieved five gold records. Don't miss this trip down memory lane with a true pioneer of the Australian pop music industry.
