FRIENDS OF THE THEATRE ★

If you enjoy the theatre, why not become a Friend of the Theatre? Friends of the Theatre is an organisation where members volunteer to work in various aspects of the theatre such as ushering, bar, candy bar and program selling. Friends receive discounts to many of the shows listed in Spotlight, and also receive this newsletter mailed direct to them. Each time a Friend of the Theatre works they receive a Performance Work Voucher, which is exchanged for tickets to events. Unlimited seats are available in exchange for Performance Work Vouchers on events in Spotlight bearing the blue star symbol. For other events, voucher seats are limited to a total of six seats per performance. Further details as well as membership forms are available from the Box Office.

SEE IT LIVE REWARDS

Save money on tickets to many events in Spotlight by becoming a See It Live Rewards member. Ask the Box Office for more details.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Theatre programs start promptly at the advertised start time and latecomers will not be admitted until a suitable break in the performance. Smoking is not allowed in any part of the Pilbeam Theatre or other Council venues. The use of cameras and recording devices during performances is illegal and penalties for infringement of copyright in this way are severe. Please ensure all mobile phones are switched off before entering the auditorium. Crying or fidgety children can be a distraction to other theatregoers and performers, so if you bring your small child to the theatre, please book an aisle seat in case you need to exit the auditorium.

CounterMove Sydney Dance Company

Sydney Dance Company's CounterMove explores luminescence and life in a double bill that will enchant, compel and amuse with exhilarating physical dance by some of Australia's finest dancers. From one of the world's most exciting choreographers comes a laugh-out-loud funny and affectionate tribute and parody of modern art: Cacti. Swedish

Alexander Ekman's witty and energetic piece, performed by the full Company and a string quartet, will take you in with a knowing wink, then surprise you with its bracing physicality. Cacti has been on tour since it premiered in 2013 performing to sold-out houses delighting critics and audiences alike. The second work, Rafael Bonachela's world premiere, Lux Tenebris, provides the perfect contrast: light and darkness emerging from a dusky sonic landscape by composer Nick Wales (long-term collaborator of Sarah Blasko). Movement follows deep, unexpected, visceral beats, and sharp, sudden twists to discover a dark place where there is space for beauty and light. Bonachela's work, as always, is deeply emotional. CounterMove will intrigue, move and entertain you. Don't miss out. Presented by Rockhampton Regional Council. Part of the 2016 See It Live Theatre Season. Rockhampton Art Gallery will be open for 90 minutes before the starting time of this show and others in the 2016 See It Live Theatre Season. Free entry. To see what is on, visit rockhamptonartgallery.com.au

Summer of the Seventeenth Doll

Rockhampton Little Theatre performs Ray Lawler's classic play, The Summer of the Seventeenth Doll. Every summer for the past 17 years, Olive opens her door to canecutters Roo and Barney who bring with them a Kewpie doll as a souvenir. This year, however, things are different. Olive invites her prim-and-proper friend Pearl to meet the rough-and-tumble boys, who are caught in a downward spiral that threatens to shatter the peaceful traditions of the household. Arguably, Australia's most important play of the post-war era. Don't miss it.

The Peasant Prince

Monkey Baa Theatre Company will perform The Peasant Prince, the children's version of Li Cunxin's iconic autobiography, Mao's Last Dancer, at the Pilbeam Theatre in August. Li, a 10-year old peasant boy, is plucked from his village in rural China and sent to a ballet academy in the big city. He leaves everything and everyone he knows, including his beloved parents. Over years of gruelling training and determination, this boy transforms from an impoverished peasant to a giant of the international dance scene. Li's courage, resilience and unwavering hope for a better life makes The Peasant Prince a story to ignite our own aspirations to be the best person we can be. The Peasant Prince is adapted for the stage and performed by Monkey Baa Theatre Company, one of Australia's premier theatre companies creating quality theatre for young people.

The Barber of Seville

2016 is the 200th anniversary of the first performance of The Barber of Seville and Opera Queensland's delicious dose of comedy and effervescent music is the perfect way to say – Happy Birthday Figaro!

Dashing Count Almaviva has lost his heart to the sassy young maiden Rosina. But Rosina's guardian is determined to marry her himself until Figaro – king of charisma and silken style – leads the charge to unite the young lovers through a series of hilarious, “fool proof” schemes. Will it all add up to a Spanish mission impossible? Get ready for a rollicking fiesta of sunny Spanish madness as Rossini's celebrated, razor-sharp, musical wit is brought to life by director Lindy Hume and a fabulous cast of Queensland artists including former OperaQ Young Artist Brett Carter and audience favourites Andrew Collis, Virgilio Marino, Shaun Brown, David Hibbard, Emily Burke and Monique Latimore. Featuring the Opera Queensland Rockhampton Community Chorus and musicians from the Queensland Symphony Orchestra. Sung in Italian with projected English translations. Presented by Rockhampton Regional Council and Opera Australia. Part of the 2016 See it Live Theatre Season.

42nd Street

Rockhampton Grammar School performs one of show business's most classic and beloved tales, 42nd Street. It tells the story of Peggy Sawyer, a talented young performer with stars in her eyes who gets her big break on Broadway. Peggy arrives to New York City from her hometown of Allentown, Pennsylvania, armed with her tap shoes and big dreams. Peggy's talent catches the eye of legendary Broadway director Julian Marsh, who gives her a spot in the chorus of Pretty Lady, his newest show. Pretty Lady stars Dorothy Brock, the classic Broadway diva, who takes an instant dislike to the new girl in the cast. When Dorothy is injured during the show's previews, Pretty Lady looks like it will have to close, unless a new girl talented enough to lead the show can be found — someone like Peggy Sawyer! Peggy's rise from showgirl to star is the stuff of show business dreams. 42nd Street is full of crowd-pleasing tap dances, popular musical theatre standards, and show-stopping ensemble production numbers.
