FRIENDS OF THE THEATRE

If you enjoy the theatre, why not become a Friend of the Theatre? Friends of the Theatre is an organisation where members volunteer to work in various aspects of the theatre such as ushering, bar, candy bar and program selling. Friends receive discounts to many of the shows listed in Spotlight, and also receive a newsletter mailed direct to them.

Each time a Friend of the Theatre works they receive a Performance Work Voucher, which is exchanged for tickets to events. Unlimited seats are available in exchange for Performance Work Vouchers on events in Spotlight bearing the blue star symbol. For other events, voucher seats are limited to a total of six seats per performance. Further details as well as membership forms are available from the Box Office.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Theatre programs start promptly at the advertised start time and latecomers will not be admitted until a suitable break in the performance. Smoking is not allowed in any part of the Pilbeam Theatre or other Council venues.

The use of cameras and recording devices during performances is illegal and penalties for infringement of copyright in this way are severe. Please ensure all mobile phones are switched off before entering the auditorium. Crying or fidgety children can be a distraction to other theatregoers and performers, so if you bring your small child to the theatre, please book an aisle seat in case you need to exit the auditorium.

MORNING MELODIES: THE ANDREWS SISTERS TRIBUTE

WHERE PILBEAM THEATRE
WHEN MON 21 FEB. 11:00AM
COST A $20, P $18, G (10+ P) $17, FOT $17

Are you 'In the Mood' for a trip down memory lane? The Pilbeam Theatre's 2022 Morning Melodies season kicks off in February with a tribute to the harmony-singing sisters of the boogie woogie and swing eras, the Andrews Sisters.

The Andrews Sisters were the most successful female vocal group of the Second World War years. Their exuberant, close harmony styles and intricate vocal arrangements entertained the troops and the public throughout the darkest days of World War Two.

February's Morning Melodies recreates the era with three sassy divas, backed by an accomplished live band. Together the khaki-clad trio will bring back the gorgeous 3-part harmony and toe-tapping tunes of the Andrews Sisters with such hits as Boogie-Woogie Bugle Boy, Rum and Coca Cola and Don't Sit Under The Apple Tree as well as big band hits of the era like Chattanooga Choo Choo, In the Mood and more!

Morning Melodies is presented by Rockhampton Regional Council, Bolsover Radiology and Brumby's Allenstown / Gracemere / Parkhurst.

BLACK COCKATOO

WHERE

PILBEAM THEATRE

WHEN

WED 20 APR. 7:30PM

COST

A $45, C $41, G (6+) $39<sup>EA</sup>,
FOT $39,
STUDENT GROUP $17<sup>EA</sup>

Over 150 years ago, 13 brave Aboriginal men in Western Victoria picked up their cricket bats and embarked on a treacherous voyage to England and into the unknown – all in the name of sport.

Risking illness and persecution, Australia's first international cricket team – including Australia's first Indigenous sporting hero, Johnny Mullagh – amazed the English crowds with astonishing talent, personality and grit. They should have returned to Australia as celebrated heroes. Instead they came back to find the world they once knew was no longer there.

This is not just a story about cricket – this is a story of strength, resistance, hope and possibility. When a group of young present-day activists sneak into the Wimmera Discovery Centre to expose the truth of what happened to Johnny and his team mates, a hidden legend of triumph and tragedy unfolds. Funny and incredibly moving, Black Cockatoo is a new artistic collaboration between iconic Australian writer Geoffrey Atherden (Mother and Son, Babakiueria) and former Sydney Festival Artistic Director Wesley Enoch (Black Diggers).

Patron advice: Content Warning: Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander audiences are advised that this show contains depictions of people who have died.

Recommended age group: Ages 12+
